

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH: Nick B. Nicholaou

Nick Nicholaou is President of Ministry Business Services, Inc. (MBS), a team of management consultants specializing in ministry management and operations. While in executive service for the American auto manufacturing industry, he and his wife Grace sensed God's call to found MBS. Since 1986 Nick and his team have been serving ministries in consultative and hands-on roles in operations and administration. His specific areas of expertise include organizational management, crisis resolution, and strategic implementation of technology.

In 1996 MBS was honored by the Christian Leadership Alliance (CLA) for its role in assisting ministries nationwide. Then in 2002 CLA honored Nick with their Distinguished Service Award for excellence in serving ministries. Prior to that Nick was honored as NACBA's 1993 inductee into their Hall of Fame for his contribution to the field of church management.

Nick has been published hundreds of times.
